

JUDGE DIDN'T FINE
FIGHTING LAWYERS.POLLARD-BRECKENRIDGE AT-
TORNEYS NOT PROSECUTED

Neither Was the Deposition of the Plaintiff That Was Taken at Lexington Just Before the Trial, Admitted—Ladies Are All Barred Out of Court.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—[Special.]—Judge Bradley did not take official notice of the fight between the lawyers in the Pollard-Breckenridge case as was expected this morning. The depositions taken by the plaintiffs at Lexington, just before the trial, were not allowed. Under the ruling of Judge Bradley, persons not having an interest in the case, either professionally or as witnesses, were not allowed to enter the court room. Fourteen women, who had gained admission to the courtroom and had taken in every detail of the plaintiff's appearance, were treated to an unpleasant surprise just as the court opened.

"Mr. Marshall," said Judge Bradley, "please request these ladies who are not concerned in this case to retire." Mr. Carlisle opened the proceedings by stating that a preliminary matter should first be cleared. He referred to a production of the four volumes of Washington Irving, over which there was so much mysterious sparring between opposing counsel Friday.

Major Butterworth made a further argument in favor of keeping the books sealed, but Judge Bradley dismissed the question with the statement: "The order of the court will stand."

A female physician, Mary Parsons testified that in 1888 she had attended Miss Pollard at the convent on Massachusetts avenue in Washington and in Second street, S. W. The latter place had been secured by the witness for Miss Pollard, and a male child had been born which was placed in an asylum.

An exciting scene followed this answer. Miss Pollard fainted and had to be carried from the court room. Witness continuing stated that the child had died and that the bill for the professional services was paid by Mr. Breckenridge. The rest of the day was taken up by a wrangle over law points between the opposing counsel. The lawyers came to blows upon the adjournment of court. Mr. Shelby of counsel for defendant rebuked Mr. Johnson of counsel for plaintiff for his harsh criticism of Mr. Shelby during the course of the afternoon's proceedings. Hot words followed, and before the outcome could be stopped Mr. Shelby struck Mr. Johnson a blow. Mr. Carlisle came to the assistance of Mr. Johnson, and in a moment the lawyers on each side were involved in what would undoubtedly have been an ugly fracas had not the cool-headed men in the crowd of members of the bar which surrounded the angry lawyers interfered and separated the combatants. The affair created somewhat of a sensation and added to the remarkable incidents of the day. Judge Bradley stated that he would investigate the trouble in the morning and fine the offending persons for contempt of court.

THE BEHRING SEA TREATY.

Secretary Gresham and Sir Julian Pauncefote in Consultation.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Secretary Gresham and Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British ambassador, are having many long consultations in the effort to arrange matters so as to give effect to the findings of the Behring sea arbitration case. The bill recently introduced in the house of representatives by Mr. McCreary at the instance of Secretary Gresham is but one step on the road to final settlement. That measure, which defines the limits of the two zones within which seals may not be taken at all, or only on certain conditions, applies solely to vessels sailing under the American flag. As soon as it shall become a law a bill of similar tenor will be introduced in the British parliament.

IN THE SENATE.

Peffer's Resolution to Investigate Laid on the Table.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—The senate by a vote of 33 to 27, laid upon the table Senator Peffer's resolution calling for an investigation of the statement that senators had been interested pecuniarily in sugar speculation pending action on the tariff bill. The vote on tabling the resolution was as follows: Against an investigation: Democrats, 20; republicans, 13; populists, 0—33. For an investigation: Democrats, 11; republicans, 13; populists, 3—27.

The seigniorage bill was then taken up and Mr. Vilas resumed his speech in opposition to the measure. Mr. Allison of Iowa began the speech which he was not well enough to deliver last Friday. He opposed the bill.

Senator Wolcott of Colorado advocated the passage of the bill and at the conclusion of his speech the senate adjourned.

Mr. Blanchard, the newly appointed senator from Louisiana, was present and took the oath of office.

Senator Dolph of Oregon called attention to a circular sent out by Harvey Spaulding, a Washington claim agent, offering to secure lands along the Northern Pacific road at a nominal cost. Mr. Dolph characterized this circular as a swindling scheme, the grossest fraud he ever knew.

TREASURY ESTIMATES OF REVENUE

Figures Affecting the McKinley, Wilson, and Senate Tariff Bills.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—The senate finance committee has been supplied with a tabulated statement prepared by the treasury department showing in detail the amount of revenue which it is estimated will be received under the senate bill, if it should become a law, also giving the estimates under the Wilson bill and comparing both with the returns from the treasury department under the present law for 1893. The statement also gives an estimate of the increase in the internal revenue under the senate bill, which is as follows: Income, $30,000,000; spirits, $20,000,000; cigars, $9,000,000; cigarettes, $1,500,000; playing cards, $3,000,000. Total increase, $63,500,000.

The average ad valorem under the present law is 49.98; under the house bill, 35.52; under the senate bill, 34.19. The comparison of the sugar schedule shows that during the last year 15,490,757 gallons of molasses were imported, upon which no duty was paid, but which under the senate bill would produce $309,815. During the year 3,531,219,367 pounds of sugar, valued at $114,959,870, were imported free. Upon this the senate bill would yield a revenue of $1,043,413.

Reciprocity Scheme With Canada.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Senator Gallinger yesterday presented an amendment to the tariff bill providing that the act shall become operative so far as importations from Canada are concerned only by proclamation of the President. When it is duly certified to the President that the Canadian government has declared a desire to enter into such commercial arrangements with the United States as will result in a material reduction of the duties now existing against the admission into Canada of the products and manufactures of the United States, the President is to appoint a commission of six persons to meet a like commission from Canada to consider the most desirable manner in which to accomplish a large exchange of the products of the two countries. It is also made the duty for the commissioners to ascertain upon what conditions entirely free commercial intercourse between the United States and Canada can be secured.

The Indian Appropriation Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—The Indian appropriation bill to be reported this week will show a saving of $1,600,000. Mr. Holman has cut down the allowances for Indian schools and the expenses of the agencies are to be reduced. Another line of proposed reduction is on the special agents of the Indian bureau and the interior department, who form a sort of secret service in the Indian system. Mr. Holman thinks there are too many of these agents and he urges a material reduction in the force.

Pensioners Get Their Money.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—All suspensions of pensions in cases where payment has not already been resumed, or where the pensioner's name has not been stricken from the rolls, will be removed by an order signed by Commissioner Lochren. This action affects the cases of between 3,000 and 4,000 pensioners. The pension agents will be instructed to pay these pensioners their former rates until otherwise ordered by the bureau.

Considering the Tariff Bill.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—The senate finance committee had the tariff bill up for consideration yesterday. Senator Aldrich moved a resolution giving workingmen, farmers and manufacturers five days in which to be heard upon the bill, but it was defeated by a strictly party vote. Ten articles of the bill were passed without change.

Mr. Dockery Presides.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Representative Dockery of Missouri presided in the house yesterday in the absence of Speaker Crisp. Rev. James Dollen, father of the representative from Iowa, delivered the invocation. The District of Columbia appropriation bill was given right of way.

Justice White Installed.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—The installation of Edward Douglas White as associate justice of the United States Supreme court took place at noon yesterday.

Bold Crooks Operate in Davenport.

DAVENPORT, Iowa, March 13.—Safes in full view from the street in two wholesale and retail stores were rifled by cracksmen Saturday night and about $400 in cash secured. The men who did the work came to a hotel here Friday and registered as M. Beck of Clinton, Iowa, and W. Burke of Omaha, Neb. From here they were traced to Moline, Ill., where they boarded a train for the east.

Alabama Puddlers May Strike.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 13.—The Gate City Rolling Mills company has given notice to its employees that they must accept a reduction of 5 per cent in their wages. A strike is not improbable.

Will Not Succeed.

TORONTO, March 13.—District Master Workman Carey of the Knights of Labor, says in regard to rumors that the Canadian Knights of Labor may secede: "There is no foundation for the report. There is not the least dissatisfaction with Sovereign."

THE WAR IN BRAZIL
IS NOW ALL OVER.ADMIRAL DA GAMA SURREN-
DERS HIS SWORD.

The Insurgent Leader Takes Refuge on a Portuguese Warship—Amnesty Likely To Be Granted to All Concerned in the Rebellion—United States Fleet To Leave.

Rio JANEIRO, Brazil, via Galveston, Texas, March 13.—Admiral Saldanha da Gama sent a message to President Peixoto yesterday offering to surrender his fleet and cease fighting. He named terms, which were to include immunity for himself and all connected with the revolution. After dispatching his message containing the terms on which he was willing to surrender Admiral da Gama sought safety. He requested an asylum on board the Portuguese man-of-war Minello, which is in the harbor. The Portuguese commander received him, and the rebel admiral is now on board that vessel. After getting on board he modified his terms and asked that himself and his officers be permitted to leave the country and that the lives of the privates be spared. Nothing has been heard of Admiral Mello, with the Aquidaban and Republica, since he successfully ran past the forts. It is thought he is now in the south, probably off Santa Catharina or Paranaguá.

President Peixoto, in accordance with the terms of an agreement entered into some time ago between the belligerents on both sides and the foreign governments represented in Rio Janeiro, sent word to the foreign naval commanders that he would, after the expiration of forty-eight hours from the receipt of his message, begin the bombardment of the insurgent fleet by the guns in the city batteries. This notice was intended to allow the merchant fleet in the bay as well as the foreign men-of-war time to seek safe anchorage outside of the line of fire; but it was acknowledged that if the rebels' ships, instead of coming out into the open to fight, should continue the established practice of anchorage among the merchant ships it would complicate matters considerably. The insurgents would have been assailed from three quarters at once—from the royal forts, the city batteries and the newly-purchased government fleet.

NO HOPE FOR INSURGENTS.

The United States Fleet Will Soon Be Ordered Away from Rio.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Official information was received last evening of the collapse of the Brazilian insurgent cause. There were two cable dispatches from Minister Thompson to Secretary Gresham. The first stated that Admiral da Gama had offered to surrender. The second was fuller and explained that Da Gama with his followers had sought refuge on board a Portuguese man-of-war and had sought amnesty for himself and his people from President Peixoto, which the latter had not at the time of the dispatch acceded to and apparently did not intend to grant. Minister Thompson's dispatch was from Rio Janeiro.

Minister Mendonça when seen admitted that he had received news of the surrender, but was unwilling to give out any information concerning the exact terms of Da Gama's offer of surrender, or to discuss the probable action of the Brazilian government. He said, however, that he had no doubt final settlement had been made by the time he was speaking, or would certainly be made to-day.

Another dispatch was received at a late hour by Secretary Gresham from Minister Thompson containing the additional information that Da Gama asks only that he and his officers be allowed to leave the country and the lives of his private soldiers and sailors be spared. It is regarded by prominent officials as without question that the Brazilian government will accept the surrender with the terms asked for by Da Gama.

Lake Superior Ship Canal.

ST. PAUL, Minn., March 13.—The chamber of commerce by unanimous vote again indorsed the proposed ship canal from Lake Superior to the Mississippi river, and called on the northwestern states to rally to the support of what will be a great benefit to the business of the entire west. Government engineers have pronounced the scheme entirely practicable, and it is now proposed simply to procure an appropriation of $10,000 to determine the most feasible route.

Wheat Lowest Ever Known.

NEW YORK, March 13.—May wheat made a new low record yesterday afternoon, declining to 62 5/16 cents or 1-16th below the previous lowest record. The weakness was the result of heavy liquidation both here and in the west, and the total transactions of the day were over 10,000,000 bushels, the biggest day's business done in a long time. No failures are reported.

To Be Hanged Under a Circus Tent. ROCKFORD, Ill., March 13.—The board of supervisors has instructed the committee on buildings and grounds to assist Sheriff Burbank in erecting a stockade adjoining the jail in which to execute John Hart Friday. A local contractor has offered to erect a fence 50x22 feet and 18 feet high for $75, which will be covered with canvas furnished by a circus.

DOW DIDN'T DARE
BE A PLAINTIFF.REASON THE BANKER CAME IN THE ROSTER CASE LAST.

Beside That, the Defendants Had Promised Him To Pay Up the Claim if He Would Keep Still—Feared the Withdrawal of the State Money Also.

MADISON, March 13.—[Special.]—After being on the stand about five minutes this morning in the roster case George Raymer was succeeded by Robert Dow, of Stoughton, who substantiated details of the contract story that was given by George Dow yesterday afternoon. His reason for not becoming plaintiff earlier was because the defendants had promised to pay all the money if he kept quiet and further he feared the recall of the state money if he entered into the suit. F. F. Gibbs and H. A. Miner of Tracy, Gibbs & Co. were the next witnesses. They did not take any part in the transaction. Mr. Tracy acted for the firm. The reading of portions of Colonel Clark's deposition was begun at noon.

George Raymer was yesterday on the witness stand. He is a large stockholder in the Madison Democrat Printing company, which holds the present state printing contract. His examination had hardly proceeded five minutes when a point came up the argument of which before the court lasted until adjournment time. The point was as to the admission of testimony on the cost of printing the first roster. The court ruled that it could not be received.

Plea for Monetary Conference.

LONDON, March 13.—The chamber of commerce, in accordance with a resolution adopted by the Oriental section, has sent a memorial to Lord Rosebery requesting that he take steps to bring about the resumption of the Brussels monetary conference in the hope that further discussion of the money question in the light of recent events will result in the adoption of the plan to remedy the evil which has dislocated business throughout the east.

After Breckenridge's Seat.

LEXINGTON, Ky., March 13.—What promises to be the hottest campaign in the Ashland district since 1878 was inaugurated in a speech from William C. Owens, of Scott county. Owens was the first to enter the race against Congressman Breckenridge and is the first to open up the fierce battle for the seat in congress now occupied by the defendant in the celebrated breach of promise suit in progress at Washington.

Silver Coinage in Germany.

BERLIN, March 13.—Chancellor von Caprivi submitted to the bundesrath a proposal for the coinage of 11,000,000 marks in 5-mark pieces, 7,000,000 marks in 2-mark pieces and 4,000,000 marks in 1-mark pieces. The proposition was made as a result of the increased demand for such coins and from the fact that the silver coinage has fallen 22,000,000 marks below the authorized limit.

Bullets End a Debauch.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, March 13.—At 4 o'clock this morning a party of eight drunken men entered the saloon of Kennedy Bros. on Detroit street and became demonstrative when refused liquor. A row occurred and John Cummins and James McNamara were shot by Mike Kennedy, one of the proprietors of the saloon. McNamara will die.

May Try to Overthrow Ezeta.

SAN SALVADOR, March 13.—There is danger that the ministry may resign unless President Ezeta removes foreigners from office. Correspondence from Salvadorean refugees shows that they are preparing to start a revolution to overthrow Ezeta, who, they claim, favors Spaniards and Chileans instead of natives.

Death of W. H. Stevenson.

BETHLEHEM, Pa., March 13.—William H. Stevenson, who constructed the Lehigh Valley road and its New Jersey divisions and who was for many years superintendent of the northern division of the Lehigh Valley road, died in Jacksonville, Fla., last evening.

Arrested for Criminal Assault.

ASHLAND, Ohio, March 13.—Austin Metcalf was arrested at Londonville for assaulting Miss Mary Heffelfinger and taken to Millersburg. Feeling ran high against him and an attempt was made to lynch him. The young woman identified Metcalf.

Traveling Men to Meet in Milwaukee.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 13.—The national board of directors of the Travelers' Protective association has decided upon Milwaukee as the place to hold the next annual convention and June 19 as the time.

Iron Hall Branches to Disgorge.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., March 13.—Branches of the Iron Hall in this city have decided to turn over the surplus money of the order held by them, some $44,000, to the Indianapolis court having jurisdiction of the receivership.

Navigation on the Mississippi Open.

DUBUQUE, Iowa, March 13.—Navigation on the Mississippi was opened yesterday by the arrival of a steamer

WILL BE NO CHANGE.

Lord Rosebery Talks of the Policy of the Liberal Party.

LONDON, March 13.—Parliament resumed its sitting yesterday. It is a period of the greatest importance to the empire and marking what may prove the beginning of a complete reorganization of parties. In the speech from the throne the queen says: "Negotiations are in progress with the United States for the purpose of executing the award of the court of arbitration in the question of the seal fisheries of the Behring sea."

A large crowd of people gathered in the vicinity of the foreign office to witness the arrival of the celebrities who were to attend the great meeting of the liberals which had been convened for noon.

Lord Rosebery, the new premier, upon his arrival was loudly cheered and a warm welcome was also extended to the other distinguished liberal leaders. Lord Rosebery also received an ovation as he took the chair in order to preside at the meeting. Sir William Vernon Harcourt, who was the last member of the cabinet to arrive, was greeted with great enthusiasm. The prime minister in addressing the party alluded with considerable feeling to the retirement of Mr. Gladstone, saying that they would "greatly miss that sublime and patriotic figure which enriched and ennobled not merely the treasury bench but the house itself." Lord Rosebery said the policy of the liberal party would undergo no change.

Justin McCarthy has been re-elected chairman of the Irish parliamentary party.

CARPENTER LICENSE BILL.

Measure Amended and on Its Final Passage in the Iowa Legislature.

DES MOINES, Iowa, March 13.—The senate finally completed the Carpenter bill and the measure was taken up for final passage yesterday morning. As amended the bill provides that each county or city having a population of 5,000 shall have the privilege of voting on the question whether sales of liquor shall be allowed. If it is decided unfavorably it cannot be again submitted for five years; if favorable, the question of its abolition shall be submitted annually thereafter, petitions signed by one-third of the voters of the district being a preliminary condition. Where it is decided to have saloons power is given the district courts to issue permits, a fee of $600 annually being required. The present law is kept in force where no election is held or where it is decided not to have saloons. No sales are allowed to minors, drunkards or Keeley graduates. The business must be confined to one room on a public street, and no music, chairs, tables, dancing or pictures will be allowed.

A big delegation is here from Cedar Rapids working against the passage of the bill abolishing special charters for cities and towns. The opponents of the bill say it will damage the credits of the cities and towns and cause their bonds to become worthless.

CIVIL WAR GOES ON.

Several Persons Wounded and Armed

Factions Eager to Shed Blood.

END, O. T., March 13.—A new factor has entered into the municipal war in this city and precipitated another desperate fight between S. F. Spencer, president of the "O" County bank, and a hard character named Flaherty. Spencer was put in nomination by the Moore crowd for city treasurer and became involved in a quarrel with Flaherty at the arsenal, where both sides are camped on the guns. Spencer was brutally beaten, but, managing to get his gun in position, began an indiscriminate fusillade on his assailants. Flaherty was slightly wounded and a spent bullet struck a woman on the street, but did not seriously injure her.

No one is permitted to go near either of the hostile camps without a pass from the leaders of the factions and the feeling is so bitter over the Spencer-Flaherty shooting and the local primaries that it is feared there will be bloodshed.

BURNS HERSELF TO DEATH.

Tragic Suicide of Mrs. M. A. Wells at Savannah, Mo.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., March 13.—Mrs. M. A. Wells, living at Savannah, ten miles east of here, entered a closet yesterday morning, carrying with her a can of kerosene. Locking the door on the inside, she poured the oil over her clothes and on the woodwork, then set fire to her dress. Her screams alarmed the neighbors. They were compelled to break down the door, but did not succeed until the woman's screams had ceased. When they finally reached her she was dead. Her mind was affected.

Missouri River Breaks at Yankton.

YANKTON, S. D., March 13.—The Missouri river broke at this point yesterday and is running out slowly. There is no danger of a gorge or extreme high water for the reason that the ice has become thin by a month of warm weather and would not hold together in the event of a clogging of the channels.

Sentenced for Manslaughter.

DEADWOOD, S. N., March 13.—Judge Plozman sentenced Mary Yusta to three years and seven months for killing Maggie McDermott last December. The murder was a deliberate one, but owing to the girl's age, 17 years, the jury brought in a verdict of manslaughter.

A MOB OF STRIKERS
BEGIN A BIG RIOT.DISSATISFIED DYERS TAKE THE WARPATH.

They Battered Down the Doors of Simon's Dye House, Destroyed the Silks and Do Other Damage—Employees Driven Off at the Point of the Revolver.

PATTERSON, N. J., March 13.—[Special.]—Seven hundred striking dyers started rioting this morning. They battered down the doors of Simon's Dye House, destroying the silk and forcing the employees to quit. They also tried in some other places to drive off the men at the point of revolvers. The situation is serious.

OHIO MINERS READY FOR WAR

The Convention Decide To Prolong the Strike Indefinitely.

MASSILLON, Ohio, March 13.—A convention of Massillon district miners was held at Canal Fulton yesterday to act upon the suggestion of the National Executive Board of United Mine Workers of America that local differences be waived for the present and work resumed until a prosperous moment presents itself for inaugurating a general strike for higher wages. By a vote of 1,793 against 180 it was resolved to ignore the advice of the executive board and prolong the lockout, which has continued since Feb. 19.

National President McBride says that while he did not advise the strike in the district he recognized that the situation here in which the operators demand the abolition of a differential of 15 cents that has been paid for many years was peculiar and not really contemplated in his now celebrated "peace circular." He therefore indorses the lockout and it seems now that it will last for many months, as the operators are no less firm than the employees.

The national convention of the United Mine Workers will be held at Columbus April 10. It is usual thereafter to hold a joint conference with the operators and fix the wage scale for the year beginning May 1. If this is not accomplished to the satisfaction of the miners President McBride intimated that preparations would be made for the national strike, suggested as a future necessity in his recent circular.

In the open letter to the operators the miners undertake to prove that the operators never complained of the 15 cents differential until April, 1893, and instead of asking that the matter be arbitrated demanded the reduction with no alternative. After quoting the operators' circular, in which it is stated that the extraordinary expense attending the operation of the Massillon miners compelled a reduction in the cost of mining, the miners enter into a lengthy argument based upon official statistics. That conclude that the investment of capital in Massillon district amounts to $1,290,400 and reckon the total cost of production a ton is $1.13. The value of this in 1890 was $1.27 a ton, allowing a profit of 13 per cent upon the total investment. By the same method of figuring, they find that in Massillon's chief competitor, Jackson county, the operators reaped a profit of only 7.6 per cent upon their investment.

TO OPPOSE A CUT IN WAGES.

Union Pacific Employees Hold a Conference at Omaha, Neb.

OMAHA, Neb., March 13.—The Union Pacific employees who have reached Omaha to attend the wage conference with President Clark held a little conference of their own yesterday at the Arcade hotel. A committee was appointed to go over the new schedule of wages thoroughly and prepare arguments to be presented to the receivers against any cut in wages. There is great activity at Union Pacific headquarters in the various departments in preparation for the comparative statements of wages paid on the Union Pacific and other roads of the country.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, March 13.—Notices were posted to-day by the Cleveland and Pittsburgh and Nypano Dock companies announcing a cut of about 15 per cent on all the men employed on the docks, including the engineers. A similar notice was posted at Fairport.

LOWELL, Mass., March 13.—The employees of the Merrimack mills at Dracut struck yesterday. Two thousand people are directly affected.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., March 13.—The Johnson steel works, which have been shut down since Jan. 1 for repairs, resume operations to-day, giving employment to 2,000 men.

KILLED BY A CRAZY SON.

Thomas Finnegan Commits a Terrible Crime in a Fit of Insanity.

PITTSBURG, Pa., March 13.—Thomas Finnegan, a crazy man of "Peasant works," near Latrobe, Westmoreland county, yesterday began breaking the furniture in his home and then seizing an iron bar the maniac crushed in the skull of his mother. While she lay on the floor unconscious he kicked her all over the body. The aged father tried to save his wife and shared a similar fate. A dozen men tried to overpower the maniac. Cheer Mr. Gladstone.

LONDON, March 13.—Mr. Gladstone, accompanied by Mrs. Gladstone, left for Brighton yesterday. The premier was loudly cheered upon his departure for the sea-shore.

A CHICAGO ROMANCE.

A Wedding That Revives Memories of a Dramatic Divorce Case.

The marriage in Chicago the other day of Miss Myrtle G. Duell, daughter of Mrs. Alice A. Duell, to Edward La. Ponte Cregier, son of ex-Mayor DeWitt C. Cregier, was the sequel to a dramatic story which is thus told by a correspondent:

Few people will recognize in Mrs. Alice A. Duell, the plaintiff of the famous Crocker case, the victim of one of the most elaborate and cold blooded conspiracies ever conceived. But, more than that, she has lived to see every party to the plot dead, hopeless paralytics or in the madhouse, while prosperity and success have been her portion.

MRS. EDWARD L. CREGIER.

Ansel L. Crocker, a large furniture manufacturer, married Mrs. Duell on May 4, 1881. She was a widow with two children. His business was in bad shape, and her social and commercial experience, he hoped, would retrieve his wasted fortunes. Nor was he mistaken, for within two years he was worth several hundred thousand dollars, the direct result of his wife's exceptional enterprise.

Later Mrs. Crocker's health failed, and she was informed that as the antenatal contract gave Crocker undisputed control over the property she and her children could not be supported. In order to force her to leave him, it was alleged at the time, he deprived her of food and medical attendance, stripped the house of furniture, sold their property and subjected her to every conceivable cruelty, following it up with a series of the most unparalleled persecutions.

Finally she secured an injunction and applied for a divorce. Mr. Crocker filed counter charges accusing her of infidelity.

The trial was a long and tedious one—a tremendous strain on a sensitive, innocent woman—but she steadily contested every point and won, vindicating her honor and securing alimony. Under her former name she has since lived in strict retirement.

Edward Cregier's bride, who is about 18, is a singularly attractive girl, a fine linguist and accomplished musician.

When a little child, she was the subject of years of litigation. After the death of her first husband Mrs. Duell supported herself and two children with her pen and needle. A wealthy, childless couple were anxious to adopt Myrtle, and believing that she was on her deathbed Mrs. Duell signed the adoption papers, giving the child to them in the event of her death. However, after her recovery she found that the qualifying clause had been omitted, and they refused to surrender the child.

After her marriage to Mr. Crocker he encouraged her to endeavor to regain the little girl. She went to Morrison, Ill., where the family lived, and abducted the child. They remained in hiding for a number of days, and though closely pursued by detectives, who were watching the trains both there and at Chicago, about a week later she managed to reach home at mid night.

Myrtle's curls were clipped, and she was dressed in boy's clothes, and for nearly a year was secreted at the home of a trusted friend. After a time she was allowed to go to school and was permitted to mingle freely with children of her own age. Strange to say, her sex was never suspected either by her teachers or classmates.

It was at this time that she met Edward Cregier, and from the day she removed her disguise to this they have been sweethearts. Prosperity or adversity, joy or sorrow, has only strengthened their devotion to each other. It was in every sense of the word a love match, and they went to the altar with the good wishes of a host of friends.

MADLINE POLLARD'S BROTHER.

He Figures In the Background of the Breckinridge Case.

John D. Pollard, Jr., the devoted brother of Miss Madeline Pollard, whose suit against Congressman Breckinridge brought her into unenviable notoriety some months ago, is far from being the fiery, bloodthirsty youth described by some Washington correspondents. He is a manly fellow, and those who know him most intimately believe he will attempt no violence to Colonel Breckinridge.

Young Pollard is now 24 years of age and for the past four years has been editor of The Advance at Middletown, Bourbon county, Ky. He knew of the proposed suit some weeks before it was made public, but he knew nothing of the criminal features of the case until he read them in the newspapers. From his first intimation of his sister's intention to institute suit for breach of promise against Colonel Breckinridge up to the filing of the petition he did all in his power to persuade her not to bring the suit. He begged her, he chided her, made several trips to Washington to plead with her, but she was determined.

Young Pollard sold his paper against the counsel of his best friends. They hinted, in urging him to remain, that he was in no way responsible for her conduct, to which he promptly and feelingly replied: "She has done wrong. She has probably forfeited her claims upon me, but she is still my sister, and I'll stand by her."

He is now devoting his time and efforts to his sister's case, and if she does not win her suit it will not be his fault.

It Might Work.

Briggs—I think I have evolved a scheme for stopping the tipping nuisance that will prove a success, if I can only get others to follow it.

Briggs—Tell it, quick.
Briggs—Oh, it is simple enough. Whenever I give the waiter a tip I explain to the cashier that it has left me short, and ask him to stand me off for the meal.

The Only Way.

Watts—It is the easiest thing in the world for a man to convince his wife that she has the wrong side of an argument.

Potts—What?
Watts—Fact, I can make my wife take back everything she has said by giving her $10.

Rich Salmon Fisheries.

Oregon's salmon fisheries produce about 600,000 cases a year and its wool clip exceeds 15,000,000 pounds. There are 25,000 square miles of pine forests, and the annual gold yield exceeds $1,000,000.

Not a Matter of Pride.

"You ought to be very proud of your wife. She is a brilliant talker."

"You're right there."
"Why, I could listen to her all night."
"I often do."

A Way They Have.

Mrs. Askin—Isn't Bowles a literature in a way?

Mr. Candid—Yes; very much in the way when he begins to read his poems aloud.—Music and Drama.

Catarrah In The Head.

Is undoubtedly a disease of the blood and as such only a reliable blood purifier can effect a perfect and permanent cure. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best blood purifier, and it has cured many very severe cases of catarrh. Catarrh oftentimes leads to consumption. Take Hood's Sarsaparilla before it is too late.

Scrofula, whether hereditary or acquired, is thoroughly expelled from the blood by Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier.

Try It.

For a lame back or a pain in the side or chest, try saturating a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and binding it onto the affected parts. This treatment will cure any ordinary case in one or two days. Pain Balm also cures rheumatism. 50 cent bottles for sale by Stearns & Baker.

For Over Fifty Years. Mrs. Winklow's Soothing Syrup has been used for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Sold by all druggists throughout the world.

A Gentleman's Advice. Dullman's German Medicine Co.—Gentlemen: I take great pleasure in testifying in behalf of Dullman's German Blood, Liver, Stomach and Kidney Cure. I can safely say that I never knew such medicine as that to cleanse the stomach and kidneys. I was suffering for years with biliousness, indigestion and loss of appetite and sleep. One bottle did for me more good than six months' other treatment, and I feel it my duty to testify in its behalf, as others may try it and get cured.

Yours truly, Mrs. McDONALD, Midland, Mich.

THE JESUIT'S GOLD.

A Secret That Has Been Safely Guarded by the Apaches.

"It seems strange to me," said the old chronicler, as he drifted naturally into the subject of mining, "that the men who write the history of the great gold fevers and of mining in general in America, never touch upon what is by far the earliest and most interesting phase of this subject. I mean the discoveries of the Jesuit fathers in New Mexico, Arizona and California. There are thousands of the wildest tales told down there of the fabulous finds these adventurous souls once made, and were working when the Apaches arose and nearly exterminated them.

"As early as 1751 the Jesuits built the mission called Tumacacori, the ruins of which are still standing in a valley west of Santa Cruz. This structure was over 100 feet long and about fifty feet wide. The Jesuits had discovered a wonderfully rich mine near by, and had taken out a great amount of treasure, which, for security they had placed under the protection of the presidio of Altar. The latter, however, appropriated it to his own use. The Jesuits appealed to the king at Madrid, who decided that the treasure was a part of his own royal patrimony. So the Jesuits built this mission and a number of rude smelting furnaces, being determined to melt and keep their own gold.

"They kept up their mining and smelting operations until 1802. They then sent fortunes to their European brethren, and are reported to have buried simply fabulous sums in a neighboring mountain. There is no question about their having worked some gold property, for the smelters and debris can still be seen, and in quantities which argue extensive operations.

"In the spring of 1802, however, the Apaches swept down upon the mission, killed every padre and this treasure book of nature was sealed. In 1817 Dionisio Robles, a courageous inhabitant of the town of Rayon, fitted up an expedition of 200 men and went to seek the buried treasure and lost mines. The country was simply swarming with savages, and but few of the survivors ever returned. Since then there have been innumerable attempts to find them, but so far without success. I'll tell you, the Apache is entitled to consideration for the manner in which he has guarded the treasures of his native land against a numerous and superior race. He still makes seeking for these mines decidedly risky business."

What is

CASTORIA

Castoria is Dr. Samuel Pitcher's prescription for Infants and Children. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other Narcotic substance. It is a harmless substitute for Paregoric, Drops, Soothing Syrups, and Castor Oil. It is Pleasant. Its guarantee is thirty years' use by Millions of Mothers. Castoria is the Children's Panacea—the Mother's Friend.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach." CARLOS MARTIN, D. D., New York City.

Castoria.

Castoria cures Colic, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhea, Eructation, Kills Worms, gives sleep, and promotes digestion, Without injurious medication.

"For several years I have recommended your 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so as it has invariably produced beneficial results." EDWIN F. PARDEE, M. D., 125th Street and 7th Ave., New York City.

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK CITY

A Whimsical Chap.

Once tried to quote Bulwer (was it Bulwer?) and said, "Great aches from little toe corns grow," and altho' he didn't exactly quote he got there, got there as it were, with both feet, at least with a part of both.

"To be or not to be," said Shakespeare, (or Bacon?) and he toe, may not be far off. Foot it over hill and dale, 'til you are weary and foot-sore, and you cannot find such bargains as we offer in building sites, Homesites, for on these and the prices of the same and terms, too, we always did "ace the mark." For some reason we are this spring getting onto the goods, the prices and the terms with both feet. And so, with Hamlet we soliloquize: "The wonder grows", why people are not "up in arms" when the prices we quote are looked into. You can get a home, if you wish, so long as we are in the business; hard times don't count. If you are not earning so much money as you did last year, we will meet you; it don't matter.

Homesites and Homes are our fad; to help people get 'em is what we are on earth for, this time.

The main secret, we suppose, why we always get the major part of the real estate trade going, is that we own a large part of the property that we offer. Another part of the secret is, we deal every time so that our customer sends to us his or her friend when they want to deal.

Our beginnings here were not large, but so true it is that "Great oaks from little acorns grow," that the "birds of the air" have their homes,—build their nests,—in the result of our grain of mustard seed. Come over and roost with us. Yours very truly,

GEO. L. & SARAH H. CARRINGTON.

BIG GAZETTE ON SATURDAY.

The Paper Will Be Sixteen Pages on St. Patrick's Day.

The Gazette on Saturday will be a sixteen-page paper, printed in green ink, and will be recognized as one of the best editions ever issued from this office. The Gazette is actuated by a spirit of enterprise which it proposes to emulate in various novel and extra editions during the year.

While the Saturday edition will be unusually large and perhaps sufficient to supply the demand, yet the paper would suggest that parties desiring any number of extra copies, leave their orders at the counting room not later than Friday noon.

FANNY RICE THURSDAY NIGHT

She Will Be Seen in Her Favorite Character, "Violet Grey."

Fanny Rice, who has been called by the San Francisco critics "The American queen of mirth and music," and her metropolitan comedy company, will be seen at the Myers Grand Thursday night. Miss Rice will be seen in her favorite character of "Violet Grey," in her successful musical comedy "The New Jolly Surprise," which has just concluded its second prosperous run in San Francisco. The comedy will be given here with the same company, the same specialties and the same novel features that have distinguished its success in other cities.

Knows His Business.

Rosenfeld, the originator on the bridge, knows at all times what he is doing. He is always quick to catch an idea and just as quick to act. On his way to the east he stopped in Chicago as he told you. Noticing white Fedoras hats with black bands and spring yachting caps being worn there by almost everybody, he immediately bought a lot and had them sent here. They are now in his store—were received this morning and are the most stylish cap and hat ever seen in Janesville. You can have the caps for 50 cents each and the hats for $2.50 each. See them in show windows.

Life Was a Burden

Because of the intense pains in my stomach and side, and also on account of gall stones.

After eating I would be in great distress. I became so reduced in flesh that my friends thought I would not live long. I grew worse and my removal to a hospital in Syracuse was under advisement, when my father had me give Hood's Sarsaparilla a trial. There was an improvement at once and I have continued taking it, until I am now well. I have gained in flesh and can eat heartily without distress. I now enjoy life and owe it all to Hood's Sarsaparilla." Mrs. MARY SHUTE, Cazenovia, N. Y.

Economy

The great problem of the day is how to make money. One way, a sure way, is to save it; this you can do, whenever you trade with Ziegler's, by buying a suit of clothes made to order by them. They are the leading tailoring establishment in Janesville. When you visit Ziegler's, prices are quoted that shows the advantage of purchasing tailor made clothing there.

We are in a position to make you a spring suit or overcoat for 20 per cent less than any tailor in the city can do it. In fact we can made your clothes for you at a very little more than you can get ready made. We always guarantee a fit. Come in and make your selections. J. W. HAMILTON IS A VERY BUSY MAN.

"LITTLE JOHNNY DUGAN" HAD A COMPARATIVE "SNAP."

At No Time Was That Historic Gentleman in Half as Close Quarters as the Janesville Man Now Is Down at Middletown--An Explanation Is Demanded.

"An' phat did Dugan do to him?"
"He swears he wasn't thru to him!"
"Did Dugan owe him money?"
"No!"
"He stole McCarty's wife!"

John W. Hamilton is the busiest man in Middletown, Pa.

He is playing a part wherein both he and Janesville figure as "Little Johnny Dugan."

He says Janesville people are his enemies.

Here he figures as "Little Johnny" for Middletown people are inclined to ask him "What did Dugan do to him" to make them enemies, they insisting that Janesville people would no jump on a real nice, handsome man who led the Sunday school singing, without due cause.

Then they say Johnny traded stock for groceries and yet says he doesn't need money but wants to let Middletown people "in on the ground floor" simply as a sort of philanthropy. Since letters and papers from Janesville have flooded Middletown the people have somehow got the idea in their heads that Johnny has money of his own but that he isn't proud of the way he got it. Of course that is a wicked way for them to think, but at this point they reverse the song. Janesville figures as "Little Johnny" and they ask:

"Did Dugan owe him money," and if so, when did they pay it and what was Johnny's way of collecting it?

Then Johnny whispers in their ear and they look surprised and say:

"What! Little Johnny Dugan? Well, who'd a thought it!"

But they are not all that way.

Stockholder Investigates.

A stockholder in the concern that Mr. Hamilton is "promoting" is out with a two column letter in the Middletown Daily Journal in which he asks some questions; referring to John W. Hamilton, as "possible mistaken to put it mild" and proposes an investigation. The concern that General John is promoting is the Champion Shelf Company (deceased) late of Janesville, Wis., where the empty factory built for it still stands. The General took the mummy of the dead concern with him to Middletown. His wicked "enemies" insinuate that he had more than the mummy with him when he left but that's another story. The general is charged in the article in question with several things beside the faculty of making deadly enemies without provocation on his part. The stockholder says that "Mr. Hamilton knows full well, that there are many letters in the possession of people in this town that (to put on them the best construction) means a very uncomplimentary record of his operations in the past. If he does not know this, let him ask any financial citizen of this town and he will find out that they have either received a letter or read one that has been sent here 'advising caution and a thorough investigation of all his methods.' I am told that there are letters from at least four reputable bankers, passing judgment on his acts in the past, which letters would answer for themselves."

Banker As Reference.

It was John W. himself who suggested writing to the Janesville banker and the people evidently took him up and wrote.

"Hamilton said that it was not so much a matter of money that he desired of the people of the town, as it was the manifestation of the interest that they would take in it, and knowing full well that substantial interest in anything of this kind was much better and would go much further toward helping them than any other plan that could be adopted," the article continued: "He therefore said that his people had capital sufficient to embark in the enterprise, but that they were going to allow the people of the town to share in the profits and therefore he said, that in lieu of the people taking the stock he was to put up in the hands of C. W. Raymond, Esq., $1,000 of actual good securities as collateral for the carrying out of a contract which was two-fold: First, that the money invested in this stock was to go towards the erection of the plant, and second to insure and guarantee a dividend of 8 per cent. to the stockholders at the end of the first year's business."

Says the Stock Fluctuated.

The stockholder also asks how it was that stock in the city "was held at one hundred cents on the dollar; while one party in town and others out of town (Hamilton included), received their stock at seventy cents on the dollar and some at other prices." But Little Johnny doesn't answer. The stockholders reviews the affair at length and then says:

"Let us have fair play and full understanding, in the light of which, if all things are right nobody will be in the least hurt."

All of which goes to show that the original "Little Johnny Dugan" was at no time in half as close quarters as is now "Little Johnny Dugan-Hamilton."

MR. SMITH WORKS AT JEFFERSON

There the Chairman of the Democratic Committee Piloted Him.

The Gazette has received the following which explains itself.

WATERTOWN, March 6, 1894.

EDITOR GAZETTE: This city has been honored with a visit from your townsman, William Smith, under the pilotage of Chairman Craig of our democratic county committee, the object being to promote the interest of the former's candidacy for circuit judge.

In Rock and Green counties, where Mr. Smith is posing as a non-partisan candidate it may be interesting to know that in Jefferson the disguise is thrown off and he appeals for votes on the ground that he is a democrat.

This fact should be remembered by those who are honest in their desire to keep the judicial elections out of politics. Republicans in this county are somewhat amazed that the democrats should have resorted to tactics of this kind. For the last twenty years, or even longer, democratic county judges have been elected here without opposition, and it would seem that the same rule which has applied as to county judge, should hold good now in the election of a circuit judge, particularly as the incumbent has done nothing to forfeit the respect and confidence of the people.

The call upon Judge Bennett to stand for re-election has been numerous signed, not only in this county but also in Rock and Green, regardless of party considerations, and the efforts of Mr. Smith's friends to secure his election by putting him forward as a non-partisan in the republican counties of Rock and Green, and as a democrat in the democratic county of Jefferson, should be sat down upon, and that too so hard as to effectually squelch them, by every one who would keep the judicial ermine free from all taint of partisanship and trickery.

JEFFERSON.

REPORTED IN FAVOR OF 75 ARC LIGHTS.

COUNCIL COMMITTEE RECOMMEND THAT COURSE.

The Report Was Not Adopted, and the Matter Was Deferred For Two Weeks, Mayor Thoroughgood's Vote Breaking the Tie--Other Business Acted Upon at the Session.

Electric lights for Janesville streets were recommended by the gas light committee at the common council meeting last night. The vote on the adoption of the report stood:

Ayes--Alds. Baines, Carrington, Cassey, Rich, Smith--5.

Noes--Alds. Arnold, Child, Kothman, Kueck, McLean--5.

The mayor voted no and the motion was lost. The matter will come up again in two weeks. The recommendation was that seventy five lights inclusive of those now located be put on. Alex Stamper's claims for one hundred dollars additional compensation for caring for the small pox patient was rejected. The report of Health Officer Robinson, the municipal judge, chief of the fire department and the board of education were approved. John W. Hogan was appointed and confirmed as special police until May 26. P. M. McGinley and Ed. Smith's appointments were withdrawn and the mayor said the police must keep out of politics. Miss Belle A. Rolston's resignation as a director of the public library was accepted. Fifth ward people petitioned for a cross walk in front of Paul Rudolph's property. A batch of bills were allowed and a committee were authorized to go to La Porte, Indiana, to look into the Automatic Telephone company's plant before granting a franchise. Bids for a thousand feet of hose was requested.

Aldermen Baines, Child and Rich were made a committee on a pest house site. Health Officer Robinson was allowed fifteen dollars for vaccinating school children and after ordering a number of crosswalks, etc., the council adjourned. The consideration of the lighting question brought out a long discussion in which all hands took part.

THIS IS A GROWING ORDER.

The Janesville Concordia Society is Making Great Strides Forward.

The Concordia Society is fast becoming one of the foremost societies in the city. It was organized March 27, 1867, and for about three years did not progress very rapidly, having only about twenty or twenty-four members during that time. But since the new life has been instilled into the society and it has continued to grow until today they boast of from eighty to one hundred members. Their old hall has proven to small and they have leased the hall over the Lowell Hardware Co. It will be fitted up in the most approved manner, thoroughly repapered, repainted and renovated, and when completed will be one of the best halls in the city. In connection with this hall an elegant refreshment parlor will be fitted up, one for ladies and another for the gentlemen. At all the Concordia entertainments attendants will be on hand who will wait upon all those desiring refreshments, said refreshments will be on hand all the time. The Janesville Concordia society joined the Northwestern Singer Band in 1894 and is now recognized as one of the leading societies in the Bund. The Bund consists of forty-two singing societies which include Wisconsin, Iowa, Minnesota and Illinois. The Concordia's new home will be elegant in every particular, as the hall is perfectly safe and will be so arranged that other societies can occupy it also. They will occupy it about the first of June and the opening ball will be given about the first week in June. The Gazette wishes the Concordia society success in every respect. There is no doubt it will succeed when the following good citizens are looking after its interests:

President--Carl Rabst.

Vice President--Chas. Brockhaus.

Corresponding Secretary--C. E. Herrman.

Financial Secretary--William F. Kienow.

Treasurer--Fred Kothman.

SOMEWHAT HUMOROUS

winning to reason.
Mother—Don't you think that a boy of your size could take the tacks out of this carpet if he wanted to?
Small Son—I guess so. Shall I take my sled and go out and see if I can find one who wants to?—Good News.

GIVE HIM A SHOW.

Weary Willis—Madam, I crave your mercy; I'm hungry enough to eat a dog.
Madam—All right. I'll just unchain him.—Judge.

Her Present.
"Well, what did your wife give you for your birthday?"
"Why, it was a—er—let me see, a very fine—ah—dear me! I can't remember just what it is but I know it is very becoming to her."—Washington Star.

Reasonable.
She—Should you die, are you opposed to my marrying?
He—No.
She—Why not?
He—Why should I be solicitous about the welfare of a fellow I'll never know?—Life.

Reflected Glory.
I'm no musician like my wife, And yet this seems a riddle, For ever since our married life I've played the second fiddle.
—Judge.

Literary Item.
Friend—How are you succeeding at literature?
Writer—Very well. Last year I made enough to pay for postage stamps, and this year I hope to realize enough to pay for paper and ink.—Texas Sittings.

In the Same Boat.
Mendicant—Pity, kind sir! I am in great need of help.
Mr. Suburbs—So am I. Been to every intelligence office in town this morning, and can't get help of any kind.—Puck.

Time Flies, Sometimes.

A small boy had been diligent in studying punctuation. As a reward his father took him to see the trained lions and tigers.
Boy—Father, why is a sentence with a comma like that lion?
Father—Dear me! yes, to be sure. Capital! something about tail and tail—Good. Give me something harder next time.
Boy—No. You are way off.
Father—You don't say so! Well, what is the answer?
Boy—A sentence with a comma is like a lion because the first has a pause at the end of its clause, and the other claws at the end of its paws. See?—Harper's Young People.

No Dissenting Voice.
"I'm a sort of April fool," said the man with the wart on his nose.
"Born the first day of April?" casually inquired the man with the gray spot in his mustache.
"No. Married."

"I don't know whether that made you an April fool or not," said the man in the mackintosh, lighting a cigar.
"but whoever picked you up for a valuable package that day got badly April fooled."

And there was a most unanimous and approving silence all around the board.—Chicago Tribune.

A Frugal Man.
Miss Muggles—I don't like Dr. Pennington's pills.
Miss Muggles—Why not?
Miss Muggles—You know he was called in when I was sick and then he began to call regularly. After I refused him he itemized each of those calls in his bill as professional visits.—Chicago Record.

Very True.
Florence Five-year-old was talking about the burglars and expressing her indifference to their depredations.
"They can't get my bracelet, anyhow," she said.
"Why not?" asked her mother.
"Cause it's lost," she replied, "and what does a buggular want of a lost bracelet?"—Detroit Free Press.

Strange Things Happen.
Mrs. Bingo—You haven't an extra latch-key, have you, my dear?
Bingo (fumbling in his pocket)—No, only one. That's very strange.
Mrs. Bingo—What is?
Bingo—Why, last night when I came home I could have sworn that I had two of them in my hand.—Brooklyn Life.

Catarrh

AND GOLD IN THE HEAD
relieved instantly by one application of
Birney's Catarrh Powder

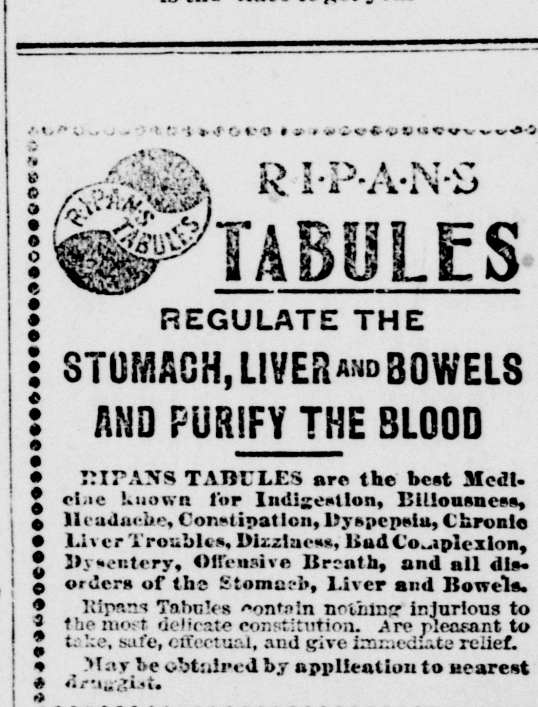

Rev. FATHER CLARK, Sec'y to the Rt. Rev. Bishop of Columbus, Ohio, writes:
"Gentlemen:—I cannot say enough for your Powder. It has cured me of an aggravated attack of catarrh when nothing else could help me. Am delighted with it. All my friends to whom I administered samples are quite enthusiastic over it. The good states speak most encouragingly of their use of it in the hospital under their care. I will do anything to speak a good word for the remedy to help others who are suffering."
M. E. FERGUSON, Custodian U. S. Appraiser's Store, Chicago, writes:
"Gentlemen:—Being almost entirely deaf for a number of years past and getting no relief from many so-called cures which I tried, was induced by a friend to try Dr. Birney's Catarrh Powder for my deafness. I have recovered my hearing entirely, so that I can now hear a watch tick plainly, it being held 18 inches from my ear. I look upon it as a positive cure for deafness and have recommended its use to many of my friends and can say I have never heard of a case where it has failed to relieve."

A GLORIOUS VICTORY

~~~~~A G A I N S T~~~~~

Misrepresentation and Deception

'Tis glorious indeed, to find the people are with us in our fight against high prices, misrepresentation of goods and deceptive sales. The immense crowd that thronged our store the past four weeks and eagerly purchased the immense bargains we offered outnumbered that of any 12 weeks before in the history of our house. Having Raised the $10,000 Mr. Rosenfeld left for the east Sunday morning to "hurry up" his spring stock. It will commence to arrive about Thursday and we will put it on sale at once. Until that time

We Have a Few
Odds and Ends
To . Close . Out

Which Mr. Rosenfeld left orders with Mr. Baermann

He said, "sell them, it makes no difference what you get. I don't want to see them in the store when I come back." So Mr. Baermann will comply with his orders.

Here Goes, "Catch on Now."

See Our Window. DON'T MISS THIS See Our Window.

A lot of new spring overcoats sold at any other house in the city for $12.50, we can sell them to you for 2 days at a small profit for..... $6.50

We went through our flannels shirts, some left of the very finest tricot; all wool flanne, jersey, all patterns, always sold from $2 to $4, cut them in two..... 1.00 to 2.00

A few boys' and children's light weight suits, left from last season the just thing for this spring's wear. Very handsome and nobby. Always sell for from $3.50 to $8.50 2 days double or single breasted..... $2.00 to 5.00

The Above Goods will be on Sale Two Days.

We will do our best to clean them out before Mr. Rosenfeld begins to send his spring goods.

Come and Take Your Choice.

On the Bridge. ROSENFELD, The Originator.
